i had experienced absolute freedom i had felt that my body was without boundaries limitless that pain didn't matter that nothing mattered at all and it intoxicated me in 2010 more than 750 000 people stood in line at marina abramović's moma retrospective for the chance to sit across from her and communicate with her nonverbally in an unprecedented durational performance that lasted more than 700 hours this celebration of nearly fifty years of groundbreaking performance art demonstrated once again that marina abramović is truly a force of nature the child of communist war hero parents under tito's regime in postwar yugoslavia she was raised with a relentless work ethic even as she was beginning to build an international artistic career marina lived at home under her mother's abusive control strictly obeying a 10 p.m. curfew but nothing could quell her insatiable curiosity her desire to connect with people or her distinctly balkan sense of humor all of which informs her art and her life the beating heart of walk through walls is an operatic love story a twelve year collaboration with fellow performance artist ulay much of which was spent penniless in a van traveling across europe a relationship that began to unravel and came to a dramatic end atop the great wall of china marina's story by turns moving epic and dryly funny informs an incomparable artistic career that involves pushing her body past the limits of fear pain exhaustion and danger in an uncompromising quest for emotional and spiritual transformation a remarkable work of performance in its own right walk through walls is a vivid and powerful rendering of the unparalleled life of an extraordinary artist running with scissors meets bewitched in this irresistible memoir as philip smith describes growing up in 1960s miami with his decorator father who one day discovers he has the miraculous power to talk to the dead and heal the sick after a full day of creating beautiful interiors for the rich and famous lew smith would come home take off his tie and get down to his real work as a psychic healer who miraculously cured thousands of people for his son philip watching his father transform himself at a moment s notice from gracious society decorator into a healer with supernatural powers was a bit like living with clark kent and superman walking through walls is philip smith s astonishing memoir of growing up in a household where séances talking spirits and exorcisms were daily occurrences and inexplicable psychic healings resulted in visitors suddenly discarding their crutches and wheelchairs or being cured of fatal diseases while there are benefits to having a miracle man in the house philip soon discovers the downside of living with a father who psychically knows everything he is doing surrounded by invisible spirits who tend to behave like nagging relatives philip looks for ways to escape his mystical home life including forays into sex surfing and even scientology by turns hilarious and profound walking through walls recounts philip smith s often bizarre but always magical coming of age in a household that felt like a cross between lourdes and the set of rosemary s baby and shows how he managed to map out his own identity in the shadow of a father who truly loomed larger than life itself a triumphant tale of a young woman and her difficult childhood the glass castle is a remarkable memoir of resilience redemption and a revelatory look into a family at once deeply dysfunctional and wonderfully vibrant jeannette walls was the second of four children raised by anti institutional parents in a household of extremes
